PLANETARY MIXTURES

Those Homoeopaths who are students of Astrology will find these mixtures most helpful. Those who appreciate the effects of plants in health and disease will find these Planetary Mixtures of great practical value. In authoritative astrological works mention is made to the number of diseases caused by planets along with hints for their pacification. Those who have studied astrology intelligently will be able to understand the value of the planet to be pacified in a particular disease. These Planetary Mixtures have been designed to meet this demand for Graha Shanti or propitiation of planets for diseases of planetary origin.

SUN MIXTURE

The Sun represents the Red Cosmic Ray which presides over the element of Fire (Agni Tattva), the Manipura Plexus and the Samana Vayu operating in the human system. Therefore, in a derangement of these the Sun Mixture may be applied. In diseases of heat and circulation, headache, eye diseases, loss of appetite, paleness, diseases of the bone system, such as arthrities, rickets and such like complaints the Sun Mixture can be used without reserve and will be found effective and beneficial. Sun Mixture can be used in all forms of cold diseases, or diseases arising out of cold winds, low temperature, cold climates, and in cold season.

MOON MIXTURE

Moon Mixture is the Orange Ray concentrate and should be used in all Pitta cases where heat is required to be counteracted. The Orange ray is cooling and counteracts heat. Orange ray presides over the element of Water, the Svadhithana Chakra and the Apana Vayu operating in the human body. Therefore, in the derangement of these Moon Mixture should be freely applied in anticipation of good results. According to authoritative astrological works the Moon is responsible in creating among others, such diseases as poly-urea, consumption, diarrhoea, dropsy, colics, filaria, diseases of the bladder, fortnightly fevers, chlorosis, anaemia, ozaena, eye troubles, insanity and impurity of habits. Moon Mixture is a good medicine in blind or bleeding Haemorrhoids. Enuresis in children also can be controlled by Moon Mixture. In bleeding Moon Mixture is perhaps one of the best medicines. It is a cold force and should be pitted against heat and heat diseases.

MARS MIXTURE

Mars Mixture comes next in order and it represents the Yellow Cosmic Ray which presides over the Agni Tattva, the Muladhara Chakra and the Samana Vayu, It has almost the same qualities as the Sun Mixture and thus it is a heat force and is to be applied against cold forces such as cold diseases and diseases arising out of cold winds and could season. The Marrow system comes under the beneficial influence of the Yellow colour. In astrological works Coral has the property of curing or substantially improving the following diseases among others : diseases of childhood, liver complaints, vitiated blood, measles, small-pox, ringworm, blood dysentry, piles, fistula, toothache, difficult micturition, inflamed scrotum, inflammation of joints and burning fevers.

CHAPTER EIGHT

SPECIFIC MIXTURES

Mixtures given in this chapter are all specific diseases mixtures which may be used in the diseases mentioned against each. Descriptions of the diseases are not given as that would increase the bulk of the book to a great extent. Also, this chapter is meant for the professionals who are all competent to diagnose the disease.
